Deepening and Expanding Impact

Dear Friends and Partners,

As we release our inaugural newsletter for 2026, I feel deeply grateful for the ongoing journey we are experiencing together at SOOWER Widows and Missions Foundation. This moment offers us a meaningful opportunity to reflect on the year behind us and to look ahead with clarity and purpose.

With Easter approaching, we reflect on the core themes of our faith: sacrifice, love, and the transformative power of resurrection. Easter is a powerful symbol of hope and renewal, assuring us that even in the face of hardship, new life and transformation are always possible. It is this same hope that inspires and sustains our work every day.

As a co-founder, it is especially humbling to witness how far this vision has come, from a deep burden to serve, to a growing mission that continues to restore dignity and bring hope to widows, orphans, and vulnerable communities. Our achievements in the first quarter demonstrate what can be accomplished when dedication is paired with empathy and when supporters like you remain steadfast by our side.

In these past months, we have continued to respond to real needs with practical solutions by strengthening livelihoods, extending care, and reaching displaced populations with support and encouragement. Although we appreciate the progress made so far, we recognize that there is still a significant amount of work ahead. As we move forward, we are committed to increasing our influence, broadening our scope, and enhancing the long-term viability of our initiatives. We are committed to building stronger partnerships, improving our delivery models, and ensuring that every intervention reflects excellence, integrity, and genuine care.

The Easter message calls us not only to reflect, but to act, to extend love, to give generously, and to be instruments of hope in a world that needs it. I invite you, especially in this season, to continue this journey with us, knowing that your support plays a vital role in shaping lasting change in the lives of those we serve.

Thank you for your continued belief in our mission and for being an integral part of the SOOWER story. Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed Easter filled with hope, renewal, and joy.

Warm regards,

Mr. Jonathan Agwunobi

Chairman & Co-Founder, SOOWER Foundation

Strengthening Foundations, Expanding Impact in 2026

As we come to the end of the first quarter of 2026, SOOWER Foundation has taken intentional steps to reflect, refine, and reimagine how we serve. This season has been marked by deep strategic thinking, collaborative planning, and renewed commitment to the communities and causes at the heart of our mission.

Our focus for the year is clear: to consolidate our gains while thoughtfully expanding our reach and impact. To guide this vision, we have structured our priorities around five strategic pillars that will shape our work in 2026 and beyond.

Pillar 1: Governance & Institutional Credibility

We recognize that sustainable impact is built on strong governance and trusted systems. This year, we are prioritizing the strengthening of our internal structures to ensure accountability, transparency, and excellence in execution.

Key focus areas include:

- Enhancing board oversight and reinforcing management systems to support growth.
- Implementing robust ethical frameworks that guide our engagement with both donors and beneficiaries.
- Establishing a Global Advisory Circle – a network of experienced leaders and partners who will provide strategic guidance and global perspective.

Through these efforts, we aim to position SOOWER as a credible, well-governed institution that inspires confidence among stakeholders.

Pillar 2: Strategic Partnerships

We believe that collaboration is essential for scaling impact. In 2026, we are deepening and formalizing partnerships with like-minded organizations that share our passion for transformation. Our approach includes:

- Strengthening relationships with churches, mission agencies, NGOs, and institutions.

- Creating structured partnership frameworks that ensure clarity, alignment, and mutual value.
- Expanding our collaboration footprint and deepening partnerships for sustainable impact.

By building strong alliances, we are unlocking new opportunities to serve more communities effectively and sustainably.

Pillar 3: Donor Engagement & Resource Mobilization

Sustaining our work requires intentional and diversified resource mobilization. This year, we are focusing on building deeper, long-term relationships with our supporters while broadening our funding base. Our priorities include:

- Cultivating meaningful engagement with existing donors through transparency and impact reporting.
- Expanding our network of supporters across individuals, churches, and foundations
- Developing diversified funding streams to ensure resilience and sustainability

We are committed to stewarding every resource with integrity and maximizing its impact.

Pillar 4: Programs & Demonstrated Impact

At the heart of SOOWER's work are the lives we touch and the stories of transformation we help create. In 2026, we are scaling our flagship initiatives while strengthening how we measure and communicate impact.

Key actions include:

- Expanding high-impact programs such as the DAD Scholarship Program, reaching more vulnerable children with access to quality education
- Strengthening monitoring and evaluation systems to track outcomes and improve program effectiveness
- Enhancing storytelling to better capture and share the real-life impact of our interventions

Our goal is not only to do more, but to do better—ensuring every program delivers measurable and meaningful change.

Pillar 5: Advocacy, Media & Visibility

Beyond direct intervention, we recognize the power of voice and influence. In 2026, we are amplifying our advocacy efforts to shine a light on the needs of orphans, widows, and mission communities. Our focus areas include:

- Leveraging faith-based advocacy to inspire action and mobilize support
- Strengthening our media presence to tell compelling stories and increase visibility
- Positioning SOOWER Foundation as a trusted moral voice and thought leader in our space

Through intentional communication, we aim to inspire a broader movement of compassion, justice, and service.

Looking Ahead

As we continue through the year, we remain grounded in our mission and energized by the possibilities ahead. The work is significant, but so is the opportunity to create lasting change. We are grateful to our partners, donors, and community for walking this journey with us. Together, we are building something enduring – one life, one community at a time.

One Cry – One Commission: Mission Congress 2026

The Army of God Gospel Outreach recently concluded its annual Mission Congress, a transformative gathering dedicated to the theme One Cry – One Commission. This year's congress served as a powerful catalyst to deepen inner transformation and mobilize a people ready to carry the Gospel beyond borders and excuses.

Igniting the Flame: Attendance and Purpose

The event gathered a dedicated group of 188 participants, comprising 176 adults and 12 children, all united by a hunger for more of God. The primary goal was clear: to awaken a unified burden for the unreached and to align our hearts with God's own heart for the lost and broken.

Key Messages

The speakers delivered stirring messages that challenged every attendee to move beyond their comfort zones:

- Rev. Sam Tukura & Pst. Daniel Daku Wumani (President, Army of God Gospel Outreach): Reminded the missionaries that compassion is the engine of commission. They challenged the paradox of full churches and few laborers, urging them to truly see individuals as Jesus does.
- Arch. Michael Afolabi: Reaffirmed that Kingdom Stewardship is a spiritual appointment and that every missionary is employed by God, making our service more profitable than any earthly job.
- Rev. Adegbite Olanihun: Brought a sobering Mission Challenge, highlighting that 5 out of every 6 unreached people live within the 10/40 window.
- Mr. John Agbo: Demonstrated how Artificial Intelligence (AI) and modern technology can be leveraged to amplify the Word of God.
- Rev. Mike Okoye & Evang. Friday Ogala: Addressed believers debt to the unsaved and provided practical wisdom on staying healthy in the field using natural products.

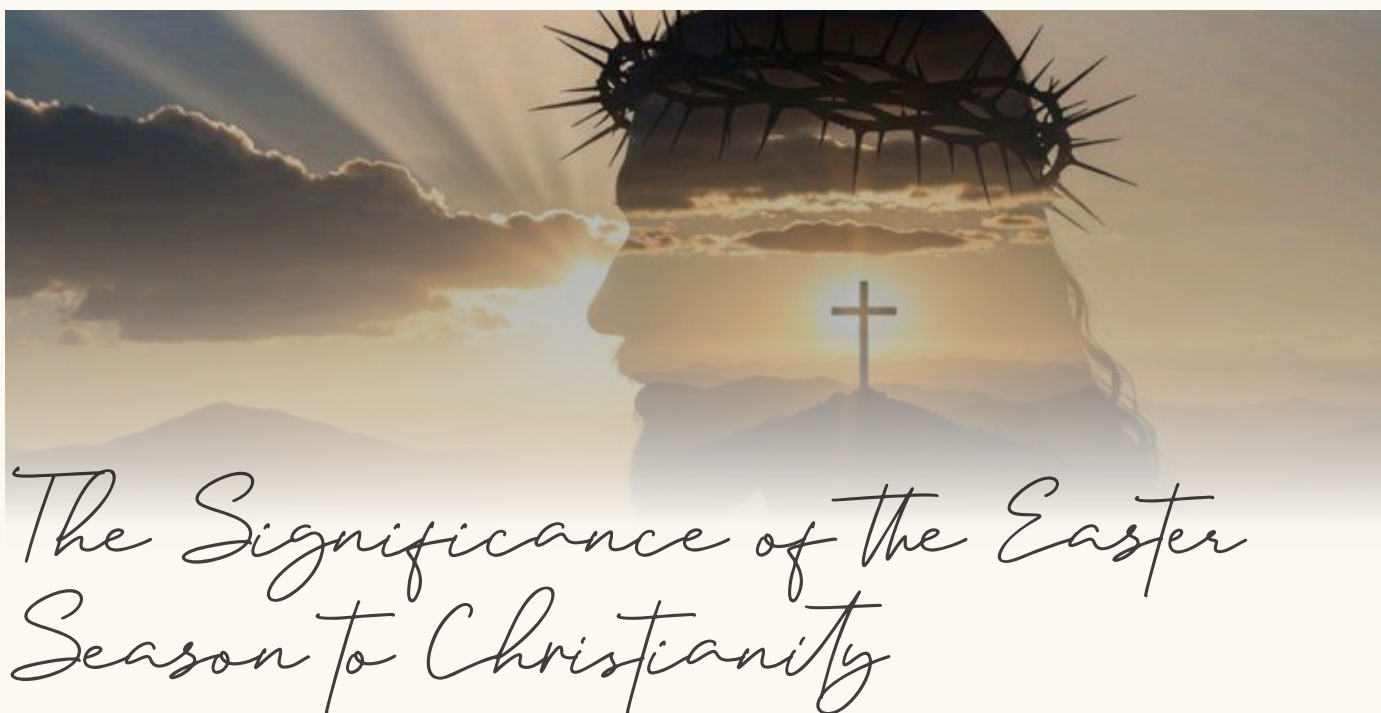

Major Outcomes: The Work Continues

The impact of this Congress is already yielding tangible fruit:

- The Birth of a Hausa Mission Congress: A new movement was birthed, with a congress scheduled for Kano in May/June 2026 and the translation of resource manuals into Hausa.
- A Macedonian Call to Ethiopia: The Army of God Gospel Outreach has received a call to reach the Afam people in Ethiopia, signaling an immediate expansion of their outreach efforts
- Spiritual Revival: There was an intercession for the 10/40 window.

The Mission Congress left participants inspired and challenged to live out the mandate of “One Cry – One Commission.” The impact of the congress is expected to continue through ongoing mission efforts and partnerships.

A Call to Give, Serve, and Transform Lives

The Easter season lies at the very heart of the Christian faith. It is the story of sacrifice, love, and ultimate victory, the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. As Scripture reminds us, "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son" (John 3:16). Easter, therefore, is the clearest expression of divine love given freely for the redemption of humanity.

At its core, Easter reminds us that love is most powerful when it is sacrificial. On Good Friday, Christ bore the weight of sin and suffering, fulfilling the words of Isaiah: "He was pierced for our transgressions... and by His wounds we are healed" (Isaiah 53:5). Yet, the story does not end at the Cross.

On the third day, the resurrection declared victory. As the angel proclaimed, "He is not here; He has risen, just as He said" (Matthew 28:6). This moment affirms that death does not have the final word and that in Christ, new life is always possible. As the Apostle Paul boldly states, "If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile... But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead" (1 Corinthians 15:17, 20).

This is where faith meets impact. Easter calls believers not only to reflect, but to respond. The love we have received is meant to be shared. Scripture encourages us: "Let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth" (1 John 3:18). Every act of giving, every gesture of compassion, is an extension of the Easter message.

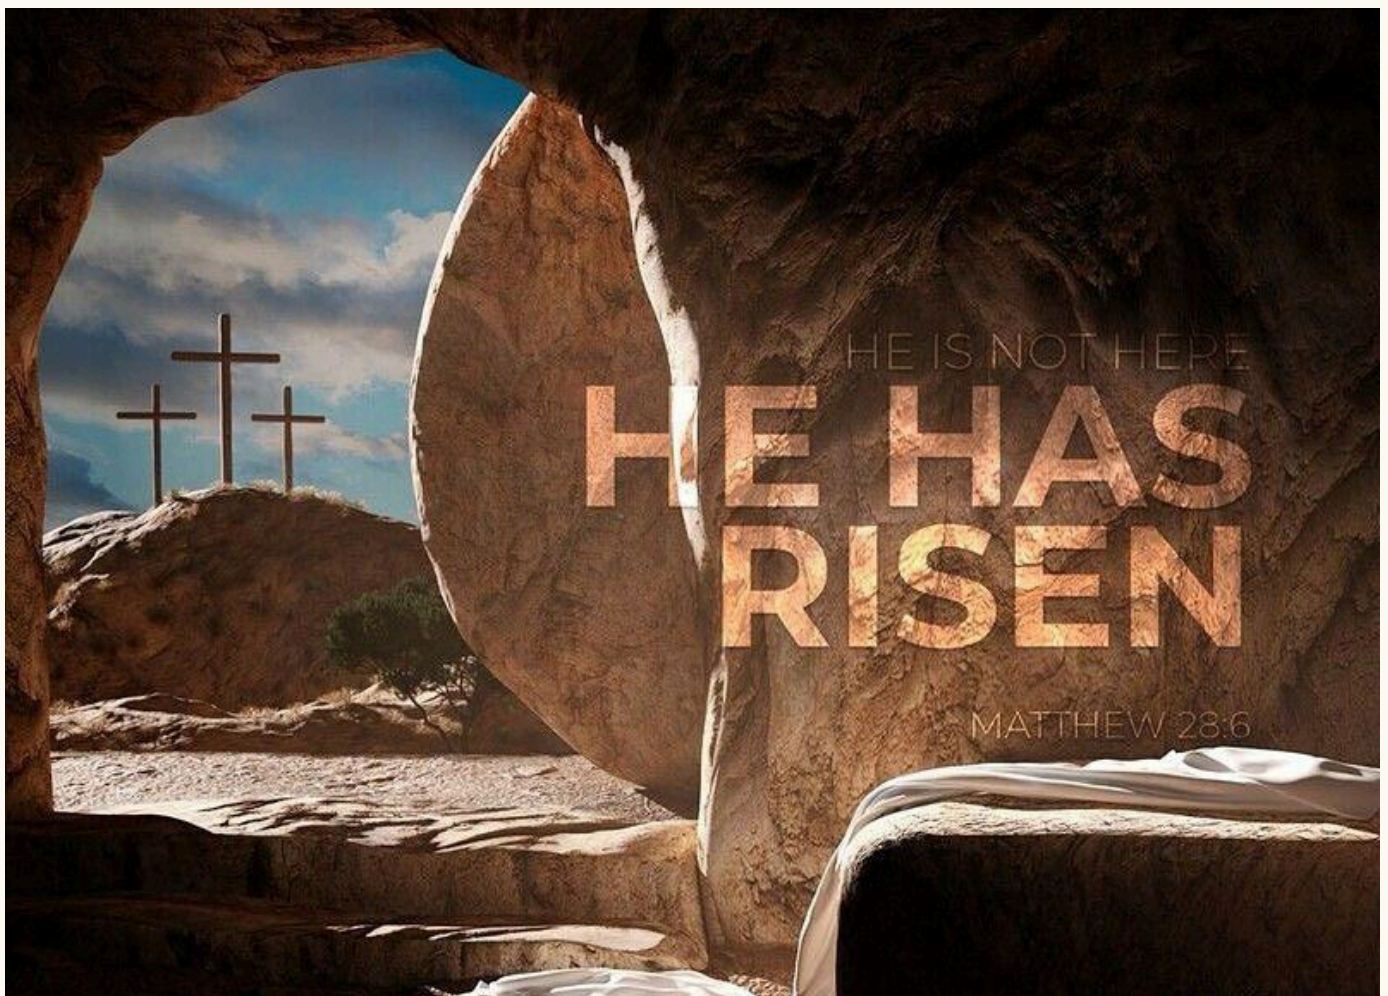

At SOOWER Widows and Missions Foundation, we see this truth come alive every day. A widow who once faced uncertainty now stands with renewed dignity and provision, living out God's promise to be "a defender of widows" (Psalm 68:5). A child, once at risk of losing access to education, now thrives, echoing Christ's words, "Let the little children come to me" (Matthew 19:14). A struggling family finds restoration and hope, embodying the assurance that "if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new is here" (2 Corinthians 5:17). These are not just stories; they are testimonies of resurrection power in action.

For our partners and donors, your generosity reflects the very heart of God. As Scripture teaches, "Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and He will reward them for what they have done" (Proverbs 19:17). Your support is a channel through which hope flows and lives are transformed.

Easter invites us into a sacred partnership. Just as Christ gave, we are called to give. Just as He served, we are called to serve. And just as He brought hope, we are called to carry that hope into the world. In the words of Jesus Himself, "Freely you have received; freely give" (Matthew 10:8).

This Easter season, may we move beyond remembrance into action. May we become instruments of healing, restoration, and love. And may our lives reflect the truth that the resurrection is not only something we celebrate, but something we live out daily. Because the power of Easter is not only in Christ's victory, it is in the lives transformed through us.

Together, we can continue to share the light of Christ, bringing hope, dignity, and renewal, one life at a time.
